Abe Andrade's practice focuses on complex litigation matters, including high-stakes commercial disputes, employment issues, and white collar defense, as well as intellectual property litigation and trademark prosecution and enforcement. He represents businesses and individuals in all phases of litigation, including at the appellate level, in state and federal court, as well as before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board and in Uniform Domain-Name Dispute-Resolution Policy (UDRP) proceedings.

Abe also maintains an active pro bono practice, including immigration and criminal matters.

Prior to joining Coblentz, Abe was an associate at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and Murphy Pearson Bradley & Feeney. Before law school, Abe served as lead paralegal in more than 15 civil, criminal, and California State Bar Court trials.

Abe is a Board Member of the San Francisco La Raza Lawyers Association.

Abe earned his J.D. from the University of California College of Law, San Francisco (Hastings), where he competed in various Moot Court competitions and served as a member of the Moot Court Board, and received CALI and Witkin awards in Legal Ethics and the Practice of Law. He received his B.S. in Commerce with a concentration in Finance from Santa Clara University.
