Christa Hyams-Millard focuses on civil litigation with an emphasis on internal investigations. She represents corporate and individual clients in a variety of matters within the health care industry, financial services industry, and digital assets space.

Christa also maintains an active pro bono practice. Her experience includes partnering with the Innocence Project to assist individuals whose convictions were based upon flawed DNA evidence with post-conviction relief and represent individuals seeking asylum in the U.S. She also partners with the Family Violence Appellate Project (FVAP) to assist domestic violence survivors seeking restraining orders and child custody.

Before joining Coblentz, Christa was an associate with Ropes & Gray. She worked in the financial services industry prior to law school.

Christa earned her J.D., cum laude, from the University of California, Irvine School of Law in 2021. She received her B.A., cum laude, from the University of California, Los Angeles in 2014, where she was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the UCLA Honors College.
